

Jake Cormier

Corporate lawyer for more than 25 years, deeply versed in commercial real estate transactions and mergers & acquisitions.

BIOGRAPHY

Jake is a co-managing partner of Craft Legal. He has practiced corporate and transactional law for more than 25 years.

In particular, Jake represents clients in all aspects of buying, selling, and leasing commercial real estate, managing real estate portfolios, and mergers and acquisitions.

His practice also includes business formation and structuring, commercial contracts, and advising small to mid-size companies as they grow within their industry. In his general counsel role he assists entrepreneurs, founders, and business leaders in all aspects of their particular legal needs and issues through the life cycle of their business, from formation, growth, and sale.

Representative clients include micro breweries, craft beverage producers, restaurants, commercial property owners, not-for-profits, as well as a broad range of companies across a variety of service industries.
